Event details:

Join us for a night walk in a historic cemetery from the 18th century with the possibility to visit selected burial chapels, such as those of the famous merchant Iwan Skwarcow, construction entrepreneur Kazimierz Granzow, or the chapel of the renowned brewer Herman Jung with catacombs (renovated in 2014–2020). The cemetery at Młynarska is the resting place of many individuals who contributed to the fight for Poland's freedom and independence. The necropolis is part of the complex of historic denominational cemeteries at Powązki, designated as a Historical Monument since 2014.

Practical information:

Guided walks in groups of up to 30 people, with the walk lasting approximately 45 minutes.

Starting point is at the administrative building. Tel. (22) 632 10 14,
