

From 18:00 to 22:00

For whom: from 7 to 13 years, Youth, Adult

Inspired by Japan – Exhibition of Hakya Gagos Works and Calligraphy and Origami Workshops

Meeting, Workshops, Exhibition

Event address:

MakiMaki Friends
ul. Krasińskiego 18
Warszawa
Żoliborz

Organizer:

MakiMaki Friends
<https://makimaki.pl>
<https://www.facebook.com/makimakipoland/>

Event details:

In a friendly space, you will be able to admire the unique paintings of Hakya Gago, a Polish-Japanese artist. Hakya paints the deep sea and the life within it, nurturing her Japanese side. There will also be an opportunity to meet the artists personally. Parallel to the exhibition, we will conduct half-hour origami workshops ending with hanging works on a bamboo wish tree, and 45-minute Japanese calligraphy workshops. The workshops will be led by Chie Piskorska – the owner of MakiMaki Friends, a native Japanese. Admission. No registration required.

Practical information:

Origami workshops at 6 p.m., 6.30 p.m., 7 p.m., max. eight people over eight years of age with guardians. Japanese Calligraphy workshops at 8 p.m., 9 p.m., max. six people above 12 years old.
Contact: makimaki@makimaki.pl tel. 453 433 500