Event details:

Sarna, in her artistic quests, delves into the perfection of the crystalline structure of a diamond. Continuously discovering its intricate anatomy, she creates hypnotic, captivating, pulsatingly colourful mandalas. The artist invites us to contemplate the shapes and colours carefully arranged in the crystals structure and slowly leads us towards deeper reflection, contemplating unity in multiplicity. By transcending the boundaries of mere contemplation of shapes and colours, the artist guides us towards deeper philosophical reflections on the essence of reality.

Practical information:

Open during the event from 4 p.m. to 1 a.m. – limited space for up to 10 people at a time. There are no scheduled time blocks; if there are fewer than 10 people in the gallery, visitors can enter and view the exhibition.
