Event details

In the basements of the Ministry of Justice, we present the exhibition Cells of Security. The Prison of the Ministry of Public Security 1945–1954, showing the fate of Warsaw Uprising insurgents persecuted after the war. In this prison, communists held independence underground activists, including General August Emil Fieldorf Nil and Lieutenant Jan Rodowicz Anoda. The tour lasts approximately 40 minutes and takes place in groups of 20, guided by an expert. Due to the nature of the content, we suggest that visitors be at least 16 years old.
