Event details

“Horrors and Love” is a commentary on the war in Ukraine. Love deals with relationships between close individuals. Hatred and love, two opposing concepts, are the themes of the works presented at the exhibition. Dr. hab. Janusz Czumaczenko, Professor at the Academy of Fine Arts in Łódź, initially an assistant and later an associate in the studio of Professor Aleksander Hałat, currently leads a diploma studio in the Institute of Sculpture. He has held numerous solo and group exhibitions both in Poland and abroad. His artistic practice includes sculpture and drawing.

Practical informations

Participation in the event is free. No registration is required. Intended for specific individuals for whom the event is dedicated. The exhibition is open during designated hours.
