Event details

During this year's Museum Night, we invite you for an evening tour of Królikarnia. The atmospheric palace interiors provide a setting for the new temporary exhibition: Direction Paris. Polish Female Artists from Bourdelle's Atelier. Since the late 19th century, Paris has been the world's artistic capital. One sculptor who attracted many Polish female artists was Antoine Bourdelle, a professor at the Académie de la Grande Chaumière. The exhibition showcases the work of women, not only sculptors, who were united by their studies under this remarkable master.
