Event details

During this year's Museum Night, we invite you to visit all the permanent and temporary exhibitions at the museum. In addition to exploring the former Pavilion X, visitors will experience historical reenactments transporting them to the realities of the past era. Reenactors will present:

- The functioning of the anti-communist independence underground, including a reenactment of a partisan camp from 1946-1947,
- Everyday life during martial law in Poland.
