Event details:

As part of this year's Night of Museums, visitors will have the opportunity to explore the former Pavilion X of the Mokotów prison, which served as an investigative pavilion during the Stalinist era. Currently, this building houses the exhibition: 'Evidence of Crime. Objects from Łączka in Pavilion X of the Rakowiecka Prison.' As part of this exhibition, museum guests will be able to see, among other things, personal items of underground anti-communist soldiers, which were found during search and exhumation work conducted at the Powązki Cemetery.

Practical information:

The first entry to the museum will be at 5 p.m., and the last at midnight. Groups of 20–25 people will be allowed to enter every 20 min. The entrance to the museum is through the main gate of the former Mokotów Detention Centre, 37 Rakowiecka Str.
