Event details

We invite you to the photography exhibition by Kacper Bartczak, "Cuba – Romanticizing Poverty", showcasing an artistic documentary of Cuba printed in lithography technique. Empty store shelves, food rationing, daily power outages, travel restrictions, lack of access to medicine, work culture, political regime... This is not just a description of Poland from my childhood but also the reality of present-day Cuba. I knew that, despite my sincere desire to understand Cuban society, I would never fully grasp their reality. Perhaps that's why I fell into the trap of romanticizing poverty.
