Event details:

A walk along Krakowskie Przedmieście Street with a special focus on places and buildings related to the life of Fryderyk Chopin. Fryderyk Chopin was particularly associated with Warsaw, where he spent half of his life, and most of the important places in his life are located on Krakowskie Przedmieście Street. We will learn where he lived with his family, who his childhood friends were, and where he played his first concert. Also, we will discover the fate of his heart, which is located in the Church of the Holy Cross on Krakowskie Przedmieście.

Practical information:

Meeting at 2 p.m. at the corner of Świętokrzyska Street and Nowy Świat Street near the metro station. The tour ends around 4 p.m. at Castle Square. The tour is available for any number of participants.
