Event details:

Father Jerzy Popiełuszko was one of the most surveilled Poles in the 1980s. He was murdered by the communist secret police for his activities. Nearly a million people attended his funeral. To this day, nearly 23 million people have visited his resting place. Being here, you will immerse yourself in the difficult times of the Polish Peoples Republic, witnessing the triumph of Solidarity and the dark night of Martial Law. Above all, you will be able to touch the mystery of sanctity.

Practical information:

The museum will be open from 6:00 PM to midnight, free admission, no registration required.

Every full hour from 6:00 PM to 11:00 PM, guides will lead tours. We do not have facilities for disabled individuals.
